If business owners, working mothers and aspiring leaders read the book, “YOU HOLD THE POWER! – Igniting YOUR Fire For Success”, they will gain the confidence to move mountains, fulfill dreams and achieve unparalleled growth and success in business and in life. For when we own our power, everything is possible!

Let Lori Hilson Cioromski, author of YOU HOLD THE POWER! Igniting YOUR Fire For Success, bring a refreshing, dynamic presentation to your next special event or conference.

Lori's story is fascinating and filled with inspiration for anyone with a dream. Born the daughter of an entrepreneurial man who risked everything to start his own business, she learned at an early age the importance of sacrifice, following your dream and not being afraid to take the helm of leadership. When she joined her father's specialty chemical company fresh out of college, she rose from Sales Rep, to Sales Manager to the rank of CEO and helped move the company forward in a fast and furious pace to reach her father's lifetime goal by their twenty-fifth year in business.

Lori offers wisdom from the seat of a women leader in a male-dominated industry, as well as a CEO who has led her troops through major corporate challenges. She successfully shepherded her company through the economic downturn, emerging on the other side a stronger and profitable company. Due to this work she has received numerous awards including NAWBO Women of the Year, Enterprising Women of the Year and was inducted into UIC's Entrepreneur Hall of Fame. Years later, she substantially grew the business and architected the sale of TH Hilson to a global leader, Ravago.

Lori is the mother of six children in a blended household and thus is also a voice for helping women become sustainable and finding balance as they manage the competing roles of mother and CEO.

To this end, she co-founded the 501c3 non-profit foundation, Female Strong!, hosts the only girls charter in the country of the YEA! (Young Entrepreneurs Academy) Program, named YEA!

Chicago. The foundation helps aspiring and established entrepreneurs find the mentoring and financial support they need to realize their dreams.

Being in the chemical industry for over 37 years, Lori is also an advocate for helping young people explore careers in STEM by promoting opportunities in the chemical industry to high school and college students.

BE THE SPARK THAT IGNITES THE FIRE FOR EXPLOSIVE GROWTH WITHIN YOU AND YOUR BUSINESS!

Throughout my life, I have found it exceedingly difficult to find and keep the spark. I have been so busy in my life not remembering that I have a spark, which is always there, but buried deep inside. There are times that I cast myself into the darkness, not able to find the light, not able to see my way to the light, especially during stressful times. Have you had similar experiences? Overcoming obstacles that are unexpectedly thrown in our path is not always easy.

Gain valuable insights on rising above unforeseen roadblocks, understand how to get back to your personal core values when life throws you a curve ball or when your business is down. My hope is that this book will be a guide to help business owners push through their issues with confidence – even though it is a scary place to be. Confronting the challenges can be terrifying but coming through the other side is life changing. Do not be robbed of your power!

A spark represents an opportunity to light the fire and create a flame. A flame represents the power of having a bright light within you. We know a flame can easily turn into a raging wildfire and get out of control given the right conditions. We also know that fire can be life sustaining by keeping us warm when it is contained. We must nurture the flame, keep it going, allowing it to grow within, letting it shine brightly for all the world to see. For when you let your light shine brightly, you can own your power, which gives you the confidence to do things you did not think were possible.

Have you ever felt so excited about an opportunity or event in your life that you were bursting with joy? When you have that feeling, remember that feeling, harness it, protect it, for it is that feeling that can allow you to have the confidence to overcome life's many challenges. Know that you hold the power to be the change you want to see.

“Everything is Possible”

Surprisingly, we do not always allow our light to shine brightly, why do we do this? We all have a story to tell and lessons to learn when we reflect on our life and gain shared insights from others. It is having the courage to be vulnerable, talk about our mistakes, share our personal journey that might make a difference in someone's life. I am amazed at what is happening in my life because my perspective has shifted.

As professional working women, we devote our life to our spouse, to our family and to our business having little time left for ourselves. I am often asked 'How do you balance career and family?' which is always tricky. First of all, there is no balance between work, family and life! It is especially complicated when you are a business owner, founder of a non-profit foundation, wife, mother/stepmother to 6 children/stepchildren (ages spanning 20 years) and a Nana!

I find that most women leaders, including myself, put themselves last and do not really take time for themselves because they are always doing for others. Learn creative ways to be the best that you can be by being present for your family, career and most importantly yourself.

If we can find our spark, light the fire within, hold onto the flame, keeping it alive, focusing our energy on protecting that inner light - without giving our power away - when we can master this, that is when we can achieve the most remarkable things.
